PASTOR'S CORNER

Have you noticed that most companies and organizations are looking for employees? WE ARE NOW HIRING! I have seen this notice at restaurants, schools, hospitals, hospice centers, universities and I am sure many other places as well. And, we are hiring here at New Covenant. We are hiring teachers and teachers aids at the Preschool and we are looking for a fulltime Student Ministry Director and a half time Director of Worship and Music. But like the secular world, we too are finding it difficult to attain quality candidates. In the meantime, we have asked Marsha Vanderwerff to step in on an interim basis to assist us with our worship as we continue our search. I am grateful that Marsha has said yes. And we promise to keep you updated on our searches.

We also want to share with you an update on the needs of refugees and find out from you how much you want to contribute and in what ways. If we are to do this ministry, we need to be supportive of it as a congregation. So, I hope to see you Sunday as we discuss this option of service.

This Sunday, we invite you to join us as we continue our journey through the book of Hebrews. We will look at the first half of Hebrews 10 (1-18) as we explore the theme of "A New Covenant -- Once and for All!" This is the conclusion of the Sermon within the Sermon (The sermon about Jesus coming from the line of Melchizedek) and really carries a homiletical punch. If you are ready for some Good News, join me this Sunday!

Pastor Steve

FROLIC An invitation for families of babies and toddlers to:

- Develop faith with parents and children together
- Build community among young parents
- Extend faith from home to church

Beginning on October 3, we will be offering a family Bible story time and play-based learning, held during the Sunday school time (10:30-11am). This is planned for the first and third Sundays of each month.

If you have a baby or toddler, please email Cynthia.carsten@gmail.com for more information on getting involved and receiving updates and monthly newsletters about this. We are looking forward to building faith together with your young families!
