PASTOR'S CORNER

Have you ever heard of the NFL Hall of Fame? A few select players get voted into this prestigious organization after their retirement from playing football. We have our own version of the Hall of Fame in the church. It is called All Saints Sunday. One of the differences though is that all Christians will eventually be a part of this celebrated group. Whereas, in the NFL, you have to earn your status, in the church, it is bestowed upon every believer after their death. This Sunday is All Saints Sunday. It is a Sunday that we also celebrate the Resurrection of the dead. What a gift – Life Eternal! And it belongs to every believer. So, join us for this special celebration on Sunday.

We have another surprise for you this Sunday. We will have a visit from a couple of old friends. They will share about the work that they have been doing over the past few years. It is an amazing gift to see God's vision become reality in their place. Can't figure out who I'm talking about? I guess you'll have to come and see for yourselves!

Our Scripture this Sunday is John 11: 20-25, 32-44. It is the story of the Resurrection of Lazarus. It includes Mary and Martha and other believers, the disciples and some religious leaders. Whenever you get a crowd like this together you can expect some fireworks! Looking forward to seeing you!

FROLIC

An invitation for families of babies and toddlers to:

- Develop faith with parents and children together
- Build community among young parents
- Extend faith from home to church

We are offering family Bible story time and play-based learning during the Sunday school time (10:30-11am) on the first and third Sundays of each month for babies and toddlers accompanied by a parent or grandparent.

If you have a baby or toddler, please email Cynthia.carsten@gmail.com for more information on getting involved and receiving updates and monthly newsletters about this. We look forward to building faith together with your young families!

New Covenant is working with the four churches in the Lutheran Consortium of NE Scottsdale to gather apartment furnishings and collect funds to support evacuee resettlement by LSS-SW. The Consortium surpassed their goal and collected $28,000+ in October for LSS-SW. LSS-SW will use the funds to hire Case Workers and translators to help the evacuees as they arrive from Afghanistan. The Consortium is also collecting furnishings for an apartment. New Covenant is responsible for new bathroom supplies in addition to used furniture for the apartment. Go to our website to donate or contact the office if you have furniture.
