As we prepare to enter a New Year, we have an opportunity to begin again. If our resolutions and goals didn’t get accomplished, we can begin anew again.

I remember, in years past, setting goals for myself. Sometimes, I would accomplish them, but more often than not, I did not. Goal setting can be a worthy venture, but if they are not grounded in repentance and faith, they probably don’t have a lot of stamina to them. Psalm 33:11 reminds us that “... the plans of the Lord stand firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations.” This is how we can begin the New Year – with the love, truth and grace of God, guiding our way as we set new goals or reset old ones.

Join us this Sunday for worship as we gather to hear from Matthew the story of the Magi and their journey to Bethlehem. May the light of the Star that guided them guide us back to the Living Word, as we begin this New Year!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
