PASTOR'S CORNER

Last Sunday, we talked about Jesus' baptism and what that means for us. I told the listeners that if you haven't been baptized and would like to be baptized, please let me know. If you are interested in baptism, join us for our next baptism class, Sunday, January 23, after worship.

This weekend we will celebrate the holiday to commemorate Martin Luther King Jr. I remember years ago visiting the church that he used to preach at in Atlanta. After his first pastoral call in Montgomery, Alabama, he went back home to co-pastor with his father at Ebenezer Baptist Church. You can sit in the pews and listen to his sermons and so I did as they played the cassette tapes of his sermons over the loudspeaker system (cassette tapes? - I told you this was years ago!). I pray that the work that Dr. King did on behalf of race reconciliation would not be tossed away because of our current divisions. I believe that his dream is still present and real for us to envision today.

This Sunday, join us as we address the question, “Does God hear my prayer?” Join us as we look at the story of Jesus' first sign/miracle – the wedding at Cana. From his mother's simple request, we hear of Jesus' first supernatural act. And it is not a life-or-death matter, but rather a simple wedding party. Jesus answers the simple request of his mother, but will he hear your cries and your hopes and dreams? You can read about this in John 2: 1-11.
